

Iraq: National Resident Engineer (m/f/d)

Location:	Iraq – Khalidiah / Hamza
Assignment:	Full - time
Input:	Employment contract
Duration:	30 months
Expected Start	June 2027

For a tender in Khalidiah and Hamza, Iraq, we are looking for a National Resident Engineer (m/f/d) with proven experience in Local project management of a team composed of international and local experts in charge of building water or wastewater plants or networks funded by international financing institutions.

Your Qualifications and Skills:

- Bachelor's degree in a relevant engineering field.
- Min. 15 years of professional experience in Local project management of teams composed of international and local experts for the construction of water or wastewater plants or networks.
- Participation in projects located in Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, or Saudi Arabia.
- Language skills: Proficiency in English required; Arabic considered an asset.

If you are interested:

Please send us your most recent English CV, copies of your diploma, your fee expectation and details on your availability to:

career.international@dorsch.de

Attention: Ms. Jumana Alkhatib, Recruitment Specialist
Dorsch Impact GmbH

Please note that we can only consider applicants who meet the above criteria!

Who we are

Dorsch Impact GmbH implements projects financed by international financing institutions such as KfW, GIZ, EU, World Bank, ADB, AfDB, EBRD, EIB, AFD and others. Our scope covers the following fields of work: Water resource management, sustainable management of natural resources, municipal infrastructure, agriculture & irrigation, governance, peace & social cohesion as well as skills & economic development.